A CONTRAST.

What a splendid tribute to a man's life work the inscription on Levi J. Rouse's tombstone is— "Erected by his many friends in Wallowa county, in whose memory he still lives as a pioneer, instructor and benefactor."

All who were acquainted with Mr. Rouse agree the tribute is deserved. He was a lover of his fellow man. His life was a busy one, but never too busy to help others. He held important official positions, county clerk, school superintendent, and at the time of his death was postmaster of Enterprise.

Many instances of his helping others are told by loving friends.

All those incidents are of the one hand not knowing what the other hand did.

What a contrast his life was to that of Harrison Grey Otis, "owner" of the Los Angeles Times, the puffed-up toady and millionaire who was loaded to in a banquet at Portland last week. This paper, in common we suppose with all other Oregon county papers, received an invitation to that banquet, but the absurdly low state of our finances, if no other reason—compelled us to decline.

Otis the man-hater—Rouse the man lover.

OBITUARY.

W. M. Rennie, a pioneer flour mill man of the Pacific Coast, died at his home in McMinnville, December 11. He was born May 24, 1832, in Scotland, emigrating to the United States in 1858 and arriving at San Francisco via the Isthmus. In 1859 he built the Caledonia flouring mill in that city, engaging in business there until his mills were burned in 1862. He then brought his family to Oregon and was for some years a miller at Salem, and subsequently engaged in that occupation in various points in the Willamette Valley.

Mr. Rennie was married in 1856, before leaving Scotland, to Miss Janet Grant, who with their five sons and one daughter survives him. The children are: James Rennie of Enterprise, Or.; J. W. Rennie and John M. Rennie, of Waller, Or.; Alexander Rennie, of Spokane, Wn.; Frank Rennie, of Reardon, Wn.; and Mrs. Jessie Lindgren, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rennie have been residents of McMinnville for the last 32 years, with the exception of a few years' residence with their son at Eugene.

Decedent was affiliated with the Odd-fellows who had charge of the funeral. Interment of the body was at Salem.

Emily Mary, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jordan, died at her home in this city at 4 o'clock Thursday morning, December 22. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. Elder M. F. Cowley of Salt Lake City delivered the funeral address.

Emily was a general favorite among her young school mates and her going has caused sadness all over the city. Her particularly sweet, gentle disposition was shown by her cheerful patience during her long illness. She was taken ill with infantile paralysis the last day of July but had recovered sufficiently to be about. Last Sunday she was taken with pneumonia from which death resulted.

Emily was born in La Grande April 18, 1902, the third of a family of five children. Seven years of her short life have been spent here.

ROBERT BALES KILLED IN NORTH COUNTRY.

Robert Bales of the Leap country was run over by a hay wagon Thursday afternoon and died from the injuries about an hour later. Mr. Bales was hauling hay and in some manner the load upset and he was thrown under the wheels. He leaves a widow and two small children. Fred Bales, his brother, and Will Baker of this city and Will and Tom Bales of Joseph, uncle of the deceased, went to Lostine Friday to attend the funeral.

ASKING PAROLE FOR BARE.

Daniel Boyd left Wednesday for Pendleton where he hopes to meet Acting-Governor Bowerman and present the petition for parole of John R. Bare, who is serving a life sentence for the killing of "Brick" Johnson several years ago.

The petition was very largely signed, nearly 500 names being on it, including all the 12 jurymen who found him guilty.

Corden and Miss Edna Ragdale left Friday morning to spend the holidays with friends at Pendleton.

XMAS PROGRAMS IN LOCAL CHURCHES

LOWER GRADES IN SCHOOLS
HELD PLEASING EXERCISES.
LAST THURSDAY.

Christmas exercises will be given in the churches Saturday evening by the Sunday schools. At the Presbyterian church the decorators and promoters are the Win One class. Each class contributes some feature to the splendid program.

The Methodists will have a big tree as a treat for the children and an interesting literary and musical program.

At the Christian church besides the recitations and music two beautiful dramas in colored costumes will be given. A tree with the usual treat for the children closes the program.

WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Nellie Mabel Hanson and Mr. Max Gummerman were married Wednesday evening, December 21, at 4:40, by Rev. W. P. Samms at his residence. They left Thursday morning for Portland on a wedding trip.

Both parties are well known and have many friends who wish them a long and happy wedded life. Mr. Gummerman is a young business man of this city, and Miss Hanson is a daughter of Mrs. A. Hanson of just south of town.

FRUIT TRACTS SOLD.

Press Lewis and C. J. Jordan of the Alder Slope Land company, came in from La Grande the first of the week and closed several deals for tracts out of the Watson ranch.

J. S. Butler, O. R. & N. agent here, bought 40 acres, and other tracts were sold to L. Travers and H. Bruce, formerly of Oklahoma, and H. P. Rowe, who has been living on the place for some months.

A Simple Safeguard For Mothers. Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 328 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Burroughs & Mayfield.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Wallowa County. Edith Hooper, Plaintiff

vs. Samuel W. Hooper, Defendant

To Samuel W. Hooper, above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you by the plaintiff in the above entitled court and cause, within six weeks from and after the 8th day of December A. D. 1910, the same being the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer, you will be in default for want thereof, and plaintiff will thereupon apply to said court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: for a decree of said court dissolving the marriage contract now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant that said marriage contract be from henceforth held null and void, that the plaintiff be awarded the custody of the child of the marriage, Edith Nelly Hooper, and that plaintiff's maiden name Edith Harman, be restored to her.

The defendant will take notice that this summons is published by order of Hon. J. B. Olmsted, county judge of Wallowa County, Oregon, in the Wallowa Chieftain, a newspaper published weekly at Enterprise, in said county and state and, directing that the same be published in said newspaper for a period of six weeks and seven issues thereof, the date of the first publication thereof being the 8th day of December A. D. 1910 and the last publication being the 19th day of January A. D. 1911.
